Gavel
International

As one of the four partners at Gavel International, Michael Richardson helps lead a world class team of travel specialists. Michael has over 41 years of experience in the travel industry dating back to 1978, when he became owner of an international tour operation. His other accomplishments include managing the transportation system of a large coach company in Europe. Michael has been a major player in the meeting planning, incentive and events industry since 1985 with roles in operations and sales.
